Annual Licence Renewal Instructions

Annual Licence Renewal

Annual licence renewal for 2025 is now open. Submitting your annual licence renewal online consists of several steps; the instructions below will show you the steps to expect. The renewal process may take approximately 15 minutes.

Please use the buttons in the portal to navigate from screen to screen and avoid using your browser buttons otherwise you may lose information previously entered.

Please note that you must confirm you have met your CE credits and are covered by E&O insurance BEFORE you are able to proceed to renew your licence, in line with Council Rule 4(4).

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act

Personal information provided by you to the Insurance Council of British Columbia is collected, used, and disclosed in compliance with the provisions of the Financial Institutions Act and the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

While completing the renewal process, be prepared to:

1. Review your contact information and update it, if necessary. The Insurance Council sends important communications to licensees by email.
2. Review your authority to represent (ATR) information and report any changes to licensing@insurancecouncilofbc.com, if applicable.
3. Submit the necessary declarations to confirm that you are meeting your licensing requirements. The declarations address the following and will differ depending on your licence:
 - You understand and are aware of your obligations under Council Rules and the Code of Conduct.
 - You have met your Continuing Education requirements. Under Council Rule 4(4)(b.1) licensees who have not met their CE requirements are not permitted to renew their licence.
 - For non-resident licensees: you are licensed in your home jurisdiction, which has annual Continuing Education requirements that you are meeting as required; or, you are licensed in your home jurisdiction and you have met Insurance Council of BC Continuing Education requirements.
 - Where applicable, you have the authority to represent at least one insurer.
 - You are covered by Errors and Omissions insurance as required under Council Rule 7(11). Under Rule 4(4)(b.1), licensees who are not meeting their E&O requirements are not permitted to renew their licence.
 - Where required, you have submitted all mandatory notifications and disclosures to the Insurance Council.
4. Submit payment OR indicate that you have an agreement with your agency or firm that they will submit payment for you. Renewal is incomplete unless payment has been received.

See our 2025 Annual Licence Renewal Page for detailed instructions and more information.

Step 8: Declarations Submitted

Your annual licence renewal declarations have been submitted, but your annual licence renewal is not yet complete.

As you indicated that your agency or firm will be paying the renewal fee on your behalf, it is your responsibility to ensure that your agency or firm submits the fee by the deadline.

After your agency or firm has submitted your payment, you can confirm that your renewal is complete by selecting View my licence record(s) from the main menu. Your next renewal date will display as June 1, 2026. This renewal date will also be displayed on your licence certificate and the online Insurance Licensee Directory.

You can access a copy of your submitted declaration from the portal main menu by selecting Declaration Summary Report after the payment is complete.

Paying your own renewal fee instead? Please select View my licence record(s) and pay fees from the portal main menu, and click on Pay Fee Due for Renewal.

Payment Policy

Payment Policy

Council is permitted to collect and retain fees per Council Rule 5(1). Council's application fee is non-refundable. Where an application has been made and is subsequently withdrawn, denied or not proceeded with, the application will be closed and only the provincial government fee (either $25.00 or $50.00) will be refunded. Where an application has been made and is subsequently approved and a corresponding licence has been generated, no monies will be refunded in any and all cases (e.g., including but not limited to the case where a licence is later revoked by the Insurance Council or voluntarily closed by the licensee). All fees related to annual licence renewals (including any late fees), exams, licence amendments, insurer assessments, course accreditation, and continuing education courses are similarly non-refundable once payment has been made.

In the event that the Insurance Council of British Columbia incurs bank service fees for returned cheque payments or credit card chargebacks, these service fees will be assessed to the relevant applicant/licensee/examinee.

By clicking this box, I confirm that I have read and accept the Terms of Use and Payment policy, and I understand that the payment is non-refundable in any case.
